KEYNOTE PRESENTERS

David Haas and Clare Johnson

David Haas is one of the pre-eminent composers of liturgical music in the English-speaking world. He has produced and published over 50 collections and recordings with GIA Publications and songs such as We Are Called, You Are Mine, Song of the Body of Christ and Blest Are They are joyfully sung by Christian denominations throughout the world.

David is the director of The Emmaus Center for Music, Prayer and Ministry, is the Animator for the Taizé Prayer Community at Cretin-Derham Hall in St. Paul, Minnesota, and is the executive director of Music Ministry Alive, a formation institute for young liturgical musicians.

David has written over 25 books in the areas of liturgy, religious education, youth ministry and spirituality and speaks and performs at conferences and events throughout the world. This will be his first visit to Australia since 1991.

Clare V. Johnson is Director of the ACU Centre for Liturgy and Professor of Liturgical Studies and Sacramental Theology at Australian Catholic University (Strathfield NSW). Clare has taught at the University of Notre Dame (USA), Michigan State University (USA), the University of Notre Dame Australia (Fremantle) and Australian Catholic University. She has served as cantor, chorister and choir director in Australia and the USA and relishes the opportunity to teach, perform and direct liturgical music. She is Chair of the National Liturgical Music Board and is a member of the National Liturgical Council advising the Australian Catholic Bishops Commission for Liturgy.
